time, spirit & love

for the people in Munich in search of community...

Munich. Church. Refresh.

exploring modern ways of faith

You are new in Munich and want to make contacts? Or you live here for quite a while but miss the feeling of community? You are looking for heartfelt people, interesting conversations, inspiration, little adventures and a helping hand?

Come to Share! time, spirit & love

time

Do you feel home? Living in a big and beautiful city like Munich keeps us all busy but sometimes just unconnected. We want to share time together and create a feeling of community, meaningfulness and belonging. We meet up regularly, have dinner, chat, laugh, learn, connect and help each other. We are also always up for different activities in Munich on the weekend!

spirit

What shapes your spirit? Many of us are culturally Christians but struggle when it comes to believing. Despite of believing or not, we want to explore if Christian ideas contain wisdom that can contribute to our lives. Every meeting starts with a little impulse and sharing of thoughts. It doesn't matter whether you are Christian or not, whether you believe or not. Interest counts!

love

Do you share love? We want to build a community which represents Munich in all its colors. We share the same mindset of being heartfelt, tolerant and supportive. Whether you are single, have a family or come from abroad. If you are insecure whether or not you fit in, forget the doubts and give us a chance: Come to share! We speak partly English and partly German.
